

Conflicts

1. My classmate likes my chair and every morning he comes and replaces my chair with his. That chair is my property and I do not want him to take it for me.
2. A boy/girl in the class bullies me by taking my money every day.
3. My neighbor spreads his stuff all over the desk and I can hardly put my stuff or even move. I talked to him many times but in vain.
4. Some students make noises in the English lesson and they do not let the teacher teach.
5. Every time I come back from the recess, I notice that someone has stolen things from my pencilcase.
